A lifetime is not too long to live as friends.

As Long As We Believe

We all have our own separate pathways to take,
Our own destinations
to choose,
We all have our own
contributions to make,
Our own special talents
to use,
We all have our own
kind of life to pursue,
Our own kind of dreams
to be weaving . . .
And we all have the power to make wishes come true
As long as we keep on believing.

JUNIORS

If you were to catch a glimpse of the Juniors this year, you'd probably see them speaking in a strange tongue—Spanish. Spanish is just one of the many tough classes that occupy the Juniors' time.

Raising money for this year's prom was a big goal for the juniors. They did this by selling magazines.

As upper–classmen the juniors are getting a great glimpse of life in the fastlane, and they love it.

JR. SR. PROM

April 26, 1986 shall be remembered as "A Night in Heaven" to all the Juniors and Seniors who attended prom.

At 6:00 p.m., the banquet was held at the Parkerhouse Steakhouse. The steakhouse was decorated with a wall mural showing the theme of the night. At each table there were candles and a fluted glass for everyone to keep as a memory of prom. L. Merrill welcomed everyone to the banquet. Then M. Salter gave the thank you for the Senior Class. T. Leininger gave the invocation.

The waiters and waitresses served the students and faculty. The meal consisted of a salad, steak, and baked potato, followed by sherbert for dessert.

After the meal the program began, M. Almond read the Class History, M. Jefferis and A. Nelson read the prophecies and T. Duncan and M. Salter ended the program with the Senior Class Wills.

The dance was held at the Parker Community Center. It was decorated with streamers, wall murals, flashing lights, arches, and balloons floating on the ceiling. Thirty-three couples participated in the Grand March as friends and parents looked on. "Kanaranzi" provided the music for the evening.

The night turned to morning as the promgoers bowled at the Sportbowl and ate breakfast at the Fryin' Pan.

It was "A Night In Heaven".

The prom decorations floated in the air while the kids danced and had 'A Night In Heaven'.

The sophomores were busy with their high school studies this year. A glimpse of their schedule includes: English, biology, Spanish, health, geometry, ag. II, and world history.

Besides being busy with their classes, they participated in many extracurricular activities and earned money for their future Junior–Senior Prom.

The 1985–1986 Sophomores are anxiously awaiting to be promoted to upperclassmen next year.

ACTIVITIES

A GLIMPSE OF

Homecoming for Parker High School was held during the week of September 16–20. Monday was once again the initiation of the freshman with everyone dressing in blue and white. A change this year was made when coronation was moved to Monday, allowing the king & queen to reign all week. As the day came to an end Michelle Almond and Carter Krumbach walked away with the crowns as Queen & King of 1985.

Tuesday, the shorts and sandals came out of the closet for Hawaiian day. As the girls played Tri–Valley, the fans were cheering them on in Hawaiian attire and sunglasses.

Wednesday was filled with excitement as the boys showed their legs and the girls their muscles on switch day.

Nerd day, on Thursday, proved to be a day of whining, with a lot of tape used for broken glasses. The Powder Puff victors were the sophomores and seniors when the game ended in the rain.

Friday, the last day of homecoming was field day with everyone wearing athletic attire. Field day competition was held at the athletic complex. Classes competed for the spirit trophy, with the seniors on top. The burning of the "A" was held right before the homecoming Football game. After defeating the Alcester cubs, PHS held a dance for all alumni and students.

All this is just a glimpse of what happened during Homecoming 1985.

A Chicoine and K. Selby goofing off at Regional Oral Interpretation contest.

Mrs. Clarke Hoover is the Oral Interpretation Advisor. Each year she coaches students on their chosen pieces. She helps them develop their characters and gives them special hints to make their pieces better.

This year in Oral Interpretation things were better than ever. There were almost twenty participants in speech. The advisor was Mrs. Clarke Hoover.

The local contest winners were: Cheryl Merritt—Humorous, Rita Husman—Drama, Amy Chicoine—Oratory,I Michelle Almond—Serious Interpretation of Drama, and Mark Salter and Tricia Duncan—Duet Acting. These people all advanced to the District Contest.

Many schools participated in the District Contest and we got a glimpse of Parker's talent when they tied with Freeman Academy as winners of the District Oral Interpretation Trophy.

Next came the Regional Contest, and with that came more winning. Michelle, Tricia, and Mark all received superiors and the chance to attend the State B Oral Interpretation Contest.

On Friday, November 22–23, Mrs. Hoover, Mark, Tricia, and Michelle attended the State Contest in Huron. Michelle was to give her piece that evening. As it turned out, she drew first sede and recited a piece from the play "Anatasia." She received a Superior rating and a trophy.

On Saturday morning, Mark and Tricia performed their duet. They did a piece from Neil Simon's "Plaza Suite." They received a superior rating and a trophy.

What these people accomplished is something for themselves and their school to be very proud of. They have all done outstanding work in the field of speech.

SWEETHEART

The night of March 1 was filled with a glimpse of anticipation as to who would become the new Sweetheart and Marshall at the annual FHA and FFA Sweetheart dance. Setting the mood was the band "Crossfire" from Vermillion. When it came down to the final moment former Marshall Russell Buseman crowned the new Sweetheart Tricia Duncan and the new Marshall Eugene Even. After coronation the rest of the evening was filled with loud music and lots of dancing. FFA also served popcorn and pop for refreshments. Overall the evening was a huge success and everybody enjoyed themselves immensely.

ALL SCHOOL PLAY

It all started early one morning when twenty dedicated students came sleepily wandering onto the stage for the first play practice of the year. These practices continued but probably wouldn't have been bearable without the help of the rolls from the bakery to get us started. When they felt the play was almost ready they added light and sound effects. They were finally ready for opening night.

On May 19, 1986 at 7:30 p.m. people from the community and surrounding towns filled the chairs in the elementary gym to witness the opening night of the All School Play entitled "The Speckled Band" under the direction of Miss Denise Haisch.

This Sherlock Holmes thriller was filled with action, such as: The mysterious death of Julia Stoner, the strange but crazy Dirty Ned kept your interest with his silly disguise, and who could forget the gypsie named Morgana who threw a glass of port in Dr. Roylott's face, and last but not least the death of Dr. Roylott and the solved case of "The Speckled Band."

The evening ended by the cast presenting a bouquet of flowers to Miss Haisch for all the time put into this year's play and plays in the past, and for being a super director. She'll be missed greatly next year.

The Student Council was a very busy group of students who were kept busy providing different activities for the student body.

Under student body president, Chad Nelson, they set up the field day for homecoming. In December, they provided a Christmas movie, "The Takedown" and also presented gag gifts to some of the student body.

They also put on a dance and sponsored a speaker by the name of Gary Zelesky.

This was just a glimpse of the entertaining and educational programs that the Student Council sponsored.

As you climb the last flight of stairs at PHS, you'll get a glimpse of the librarians performing their many responsibilities such as helping puzzled students find necessary information or check out books. They work hard to keep the library in tip–top shape and keep current information in the library for the students access. Mrs. Hoover is the person who keeps all her library aids in order.

PEP CLUB

Fun, exciting, hardworking, determined, creative, and loud voices are all characteristics of the PHS pep club. Some memories of supporting the Pheasants are the many posters hung in the halls and the pep rallies. For their fund raiser, they sold Christmas wreaths, which they used the money to buy flowers for the teams. This is just a glimmpse of the activities of our spectacular pep club.

A glimpse of the PHS band showed them to be busy this year. The students marched in the Parker Turtle Days Parade and the Viking Days Parade in Sioux Falls. Some extra pizzaz was added to the marching band with the addition of a flag corp. The band, along with the chorus, sold candles and popcorn as this year's fund raiser to finance the upcoming band/chorus trip next year.

The John Phillip Sousa Award went to Mark Salter. The selection of the recipient was based on participation and ability.

The band performed at the Christmas and Spring concerts, the Roast Beef Dinner in April, and competed in the large group contest at Freeman.

D. Janzen received a superior rating on her snare drum solo.

CHORUS

The chorus, like the band, was also very busy this year. The students sang at the concerts, the roast beef dinner, and some participated in the Parker Music Festival. Grace Kennedy from Beresford directed the high school group and Reed DeVries directed the junior high group. All in all the festival was a success. You may have caught a glimpse of the girls at the large group contest at Freeman. They sang "It's My Song," and "Allelujah" and received a superior rating.

The students are looking forward to next year and the upcoming band/ chorus trip.

This year a new excitement overtook the 1985–86 paper staff. They got together and decided that they were going to produce the best paper ever. Paper staff started right at the beginning of the year with students in grades nine through twelve signing up as volunteers to write the paper.

Paper staff was advised by Mrs. Connie Flyger. She contributed her knowledge and experience to help her students produce their weekly endeavor.

Co-editors this year were Denise Story and Todd Leininger. Each of these students gave their time to help the other students and advise them on their questions. They also did their share of reporting and adding new features to the paper to make it more interesting for the student body.

Everyone who was a member of the paper staff should take a special pride and satisfaction in knowing the job they did made the paper better and made it something for the students to keep and remember in the future years.

We have faith that next year's paper staff will be even better because they will be a very experienced group to record all the happenings at PHS.

Putting The Pheasant together are Co-Editors T. Leininger and D. Story.

Reporters A. Larson, D. Janzen, and M. Roth use their skills to report on this year's happenings.

ANNUAL STAFF

Annual Staff started off in a new direction this year. A new advisor, Mrs. Flyger, undertook the job of training and directing the staff. Annual staff also started a new publishing company this year.

The Annual Staff meetings started at the very beginning of the year. Students participating chose the activities that they would like to prepare for the '86 annual. Meetings were held most every week for the students to work at their own pace and get their projects done.

The staff faced four deadlines this year and met them all. They worked hard to turn out an annual that will be remembered.

Thanks to all the members who made this annual so good. Rest assured, this is just a glimpse of things to come.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

A glimpse would tell you the FHA girls were busy with an active year. National Family Week was recognized. FHA Week was February 9–15 with different activities every day. Our fundraiser during the week was the annual Soup Supper. Reading Champions with grades 1–6 helped the FHA bring in $840 for the March of Dimes. Kristin Selby, for her second year, was an active Pep Squad member. At the State Meeting, Rhonda Friese was named to the 1986–97 Pep Squad and our chapter received the Merit Award. This year, we had six AAE participants, with five receiving superiors at the state level. Congratulations on a super, fun year!

A glimpse of the 1985–86 FFA year started with the leadership camp at Madison with six members attending. Summer had many judging trips as well as the summer picnic at Mr. Fiegen's house. When school started, the Parker FFA hosted the district land–judging contest. Then they attended the state contest. The officers participated in the conduct of meetings contest at Sioux Falls and placed second. The rest of the leadership contest was held at Harrisburg with C. Krumbach placing fourth in extemporary speaking and J. Meyer placing fourth in creed speaking.

The fruit sales went fast as R. and T. Heibult sold the most. FFA week was celebrated with activities everyday. The week started out with bowling on Sunday and ended on Friday with a trip to the Royal Fork with the parents and then onto to Grand Laboratories in Larchwood, IA for a tour.

As spring came, so did the Little International and the state convention which were both held in Brookings. D. Budde and C. Krumbach received the State Farmer degree and Carter was selected as the first runnerup in the Star Agribusiness competition. Donovan placed second in sheep production. The year ended with the annual FFA banquet where K. Marsh was selected Star Greenhand, K. Berens Star Greenhand, and the cooking staff at the school Honorary Chapter Farmers.

During the 1985–86 year, the PHS drill teamers were quite busy. The drill team's routines included "Smokin' in the Boy's Room," "Everybody Wants You," "Neutron Dance," "Dance, Dance, Dance," and a special christmas routine, "Rock Around the Christmas Tree." The drill team was honored to perform at a night session at the Boy's Basketball State B Tournament in Huron, S.D. They got the spirit going by performing to "Black Cars Look Better in the Shade." This year drill team had the privilege of acquiring three new members, Holly Hertel, Lynelle Roeder, and Mariah Schoffelman. Mrs. Froiland, drill team advisor, kept the girls going at 7:30 a.m., after school, and on nights before the game for perfection of the routines.

Dedication. That describes the cheerleaders of 1985–86. They devoted their time and hard work by supporting the teams of PHS. Pep rallies, posters, and school spirit are only a few of the many responsibilities these girls have. Advisor Irma Bossman kept busy taking the cheerleaders to the SDSU Clinic and State Cheerleading Tournament. She also contributed her ideas and showed her authority when it came to getting the job done. Through regular season, playoffs, tournaments, wins and losses, the cheerleaders fired up the crowd and backed the Pheasants.

FOOTBALL

A glimpse of the Parker football team would show that a lot of things have changed in the last year. The football team under the direction of new head coach Gary Kropuenske, had a winning season of six victories and three losses.

For the first time in a number of years the football team won the Homecoming game against Alcester 47–14.

Records were set this year also. Carter Krumbach set the record for most yards rushing in one season—1060 yards. He also had most carries in one season—185 and most two-point conversions in a season—6. Chad Nelson took the record for most receptions in one season—21, and most yards gained receiving in one game—200 yards and in one season—498 yards. Chad also had four touchdowns in one game and 12 in a season to set two more records. Darin Hay set the record for most yards passing in one game—295 yards and in one season—815 yards. To top it all off he also set the record for most touchdowns in a game—5.

All in all the Pheasants did a good job as they moved from eleven-man football to nine-man football. Besides setting records the Pheasants also played in Regions against Garretson. The Pheasants lost in a hard fought game. The final score was Pheasants 6 and the Blue Dragons 20.

The 1985 season had three All-Conference players: Darin Hay, Carter Krumbach, Chad Nelson; they also had three Honorable Mention All-Conference players: Mark Roth, Jim Chaney, and Mike Joffer.

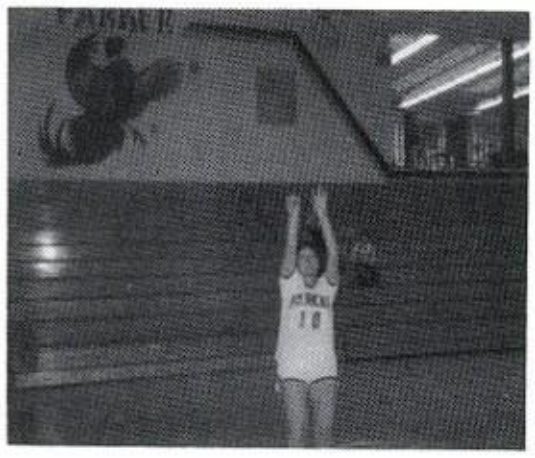
GIRLS BASKETBALL



T. Duncan shoots for two.

A quick glimpse of the 1985 girls basketball season shows that the girls had a year of great learning and much growing. This year's team consisted of sixteen girls, leading them were Roger Deutsch and Jill Christensen as coaches.

Offensively Jennifer Plucker was the leader, scoring 11.1 points a game and 188 points during the year. Stacy Leininger was next averaging 4.1 points a game and 77 points for the season. The rebounding category was dominated by Rhonda Friese averaging 6.9 a game and 131 on the season. Plucker also led in shooting percentage with 38% with Linda Merrill averaging four assists a game and shooting 57% from the free throw line.

The girls season ended 0–19, but their success cannot be measured by only wins or losses. They can measure their success in other ways. This season's success can be measured by the time the girls got to play, gaining valuable experience. Also, this year the girls can agree with the statement, "Success is peace of mind which is a direct result of self–satisfaction in knowing you did your best to become the best that you are capable of becoming."

BOYS BASKETBALL

A glimpse of November 1985 showed a group of guys, all Juniors and Seniors, working for their main goal they had set, a trip to the state tournament. These boys were determined to make it without failure. Many hurdles were in the way but the Pheasants never gave up. There were tough teams in the districts, but a second chance gave them a berth in the Regions, and then the right to go to the state tournament.

The team averaged 60 points per game to their opponents 53.7 points. The team's leading scorer was D. Hay with 414 points averaging 15.9 points per game. Darin also lead in shooting with 54%, free throws 74% and he dished out the most assists, 230 averaging 8.9 per game. The team's rebounding was led by C. Nelson with 237, averaging 8.1 per game. As a team, the Pheasants outrebounded their opponents 31.1 to 30 rebounds per game, shot 45% from the field, and 65% from the free throw line.

This year's team proved to still be a powerhouse in the Big Sioux Conference finishing second overall and sixth in the Conference tournament. They poured it on towards the end by placing second in the Districts, first in the Regions, and fifth in the State Tournament.

TRACK

Outstanding is the word to describe the Pheasants track season. This season the Pheasants were a strong team and were feared by many.

The guy's team was real strong in the relays as they sent eight guys in all five relays to State. This is an accomplishment only one other team had this season. They were also strong in many open events as Chad Nelson went to state in the discus and Carter Krumbach in the 300 meter hurdles.

The girl's team was not quite as strong but they hung in there and finished in the middle with an outstanding effort. The girls relays placed in many events. The individual events were the strongest for the girls as Monica Nelson made it to state in the 800 meter run.

The track season was really exciting as ten state track meet participants and three school records topped off one great year. The school's records were in the boys 400 meter relay and the 2-mile relay and Michele Crist in the 100 meter hurdles. At the state meet, the 2-mile relay team placed fourth and Carter Krumbach placed sixth in the hurdles.

Michele,

I don't even know where to start. State B's would probably be a good place! We really do have some great times up there - Mitchell, Huron. From what we remember anyway! I swear - this year I'm not going to pay to go to the bathroom. I can't wait til Rapid & Aberdeen - Party time! Good luck in GBB & Cheerleading, & track - you'll do good! This is my last year to party w/you guys so let's live it up and make this the best year ever! Stay as cool as ever - you are a great friend! Good luck!

P.S. see you at Dirt Road!

Michele,

You the Junior now and I the Senior. The relationship between you and I have only grown stronger thru the years. Hopefully it will continue on. Remember the good times that we had and will have together. Like the STATE theater "Massacre on Zombie Island" one of those awful when we would take JB to Sioux Falls. Shop and eat & just do a lot.

Love ya,
Mike

Michele,

So how does it feel to be an upperclassman? Wait till your a Senior. Remember going to State [redacted] Fair in Huron God was it hot or what. Well now don't party too much - but I have a feeling you will. Keep up the good work in basketball - it's great. Goodluck in track and Cheerleading. You are a good friend - stay that way.

Luv & friends Always
